

Snug Hollow Writer's Retreat

Frequently Asked Questions

FAQs

May I pay with a check?

Yes, I accept checks (made out to Anella Wetter Writing), cash, or credit/debit cards.

When should I submit my manuscript* for Anella's review?

By November 10, send the manuscript of a piece of your writing (1,200-1,500 words) to anellawetter@anellawetter.com. This manuscript will be the focus of your one-on-one meeting with Anella and the focus on one Writing Workshop during the retreat.

When should I plan to arrive and depart?

You may arrive as early as 3PM on Thursday, November 15, and please arrive by 5:00 PM so that you'll be settled before dinner. Check out is at noon on Sunday, November 18. Our writing session on Sunday will end at 11:00 AM, giving participants time to gather things and check out.

Will I be sharing a bed?

No, you will have your own bed in your own room. All will share the available restrooms.

Will there be quiet spaces to write alone?

Yes, Snug Hollow offers several places that you may enjoy writing each day during the "open" time at the retreat. In November, it can still be warm, so one of the many porches, for example, would be a great option. On the Snug Hollow Website, it reads, "You can hear the sound of silence here."

Frequently Asked Questions

FAQs

What should I bring?

Comfortable clothes for morning yoga and writing sessions (which can be the same clothing!)

Yoga mat

Journal; notebook/laptop for taking notes

3 photographs of you from 3 time periods of your life that you want to write about 6 copies of your manuscript

Warm outerwear, depending on the weather forecast; all meals are served in the main house, on the screen-in porch or in the dining room by the fireplace.

A book to read in free time--or other creative endeavors you enjoy: knitting, sketching, etc.

Any favorite beverages or snacks (alcohol is not served at Snug Hollow, but is permitted)

Will I need to bring food?

No, unless you think the three meals provided won't be enough. All meals are gourmet vegetarian, hearty and delicious. There is a kitchen in the meeting cabin, so if you have favorite beverages (teas, flavored waters, or alcohol), bring them.
