

Snug Hollow Writer's Retreat

Frequently Asked Questions

FAQs

May I pay with a check?

Yes, I accept checks (made out to Anella Wetter Writing), cash, or credit/debit cards.

When should I submit my manuscript* for Anella's review?

By November 1, send the manuscript of a piece of writing (no more than 1,200 words) to anellawetter@anellawetter.com. This manuscript will be the focus of your one-on-one meeting with Anella.

On November 3, you will receive a copy of all writers' manuscripts with guidelines for reading them in preparation for our daily writing workshops, one other way you'll receive feedback on this manuscript.

When should I plan to arrive and depart?

Please arrive by 5:00 PM on Thursday, November 15. Check out is at noon on Sunday, November 18. Our writing session on Sunday will end at 11:00 AM, giving participants time to gather things and check out.

Will I be sharing a bed?

No, you will have your own bed, but you may share a room with another writer. All will share the available restrooms.

Will there be quiet spaces to write alone?

Yes, Snug Hollow offers several places that you may enjoy writing each day during the "open" time at the retreat. In November, it can still be warm, so one of the many porches, for example, would be a great option. On the Snug Hollow Website, it reads, "You can hear the sound of silence here." You'll find a lot of peace and tranquility available.

Frequently Asked Questions

FAQs

What should I bring?

Below is a list of items to bring:

Comfortable clothes for morning yoga and writing sessions (which can be the same clothing!)

Yoga mat

Journal; notebook/laptop for taking notes

*Your manuscript

Warm outerwear, depending on the weather forecast; all meals are served in the main house, on the screen-in porch or in the dining room by the fireplace.

A book to read in free time--or other creative endeavors you enjoy: knitting, sketching, etc.

Will I need to bring food?

No, unless you think the three meals provided won't be enough. All meals are gourmet vegetarian, hearty and delicious. There is a kitchen in the meeting cabin, so if you have favorite beverages (teas, flavored waters, or alcohol), bring them.
